The Man Putin Couldn't Kill

Channel 4, 10pm

Alexei Navalny is the Russian opposition leader languishing in a jail where he is forced to watch state propaganda videos in an "awareness raising" programme. He is seen as such a threat to the president, Vladimir Putin, that before his arrest an attempt was made by a hit squad to poison him. This documentary explores why Navalny is such a thorn in Putin's side, an irritant even while incarcerated. How will the battle play out? Putin has a team of assassins, Navalny "a mastery of social media, some intrepid investigators and a sense of humour". JC
